

H.Res. 384 - Congratulating the University of Wyoming Cowgirls for winning the Women's National Invitational Tournament for the first time and for their most successful season in school history

Floor Situation

H.Res. 384 is being considered on the floor under suspension of the rules and will require a two-thirds majority vote for passage. This legislation was introduced by Rep. Barbara Cubin (R-WY) on May 8, 2007. The bill was referred to the Committee on Education and Labor but was never considered.

H.Res. 384 is expected to be considered on the floor on July 23, 2007.

Summary

This legislation congratulates the University of Wyoming women's basketball team for their championship victory in the 2007 National Invitational Tournament.

Background

On March 31, 2007, the University of Wyoming Cowgirls defeated the University of Wisconsin Badgers by a score of 72-56 in the championship basketball game of the Women's National Invitation Tournament. 16 teams competed in the tournament and this was the first year the tournament altered the rules. Previously, it was a single elimination style tournament but for the 2007 game each team was guaranteed to play a minimum of 3 games.

The Cowgirls won 21 games in their regular season tying for second place in the Mountain West Conference (MWC). The team is coached by Joe Legerski.

Cost

At the time of publication the Congressional Budget Office (CBO) had not yet scored this legislation.

Staff Contact

For questions or further information contact Luke Hatzis at (202) 226-2302.